

VIDEO SERIES: MONEY BREAK - A First Nations social entrepreneur discussion with Mark

1. A First Nations social entrepreneur | Mark Chapter 1 | Money Break - First Nations entrepreneur Mark

Marsolais-Nahwegahbow works hard to ensure his family's financial wellness while making a real impact on his community. He founded a social enterprise that brings fresh drinking water to #Indigenous families across Canada. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0A-6JzC0Icw>

2. Lessons from Mother Earth | Mark Chapter 2 | Money Break - First Nations entrepreneur Mark

Marsolais-Nahwegahbow explains what summers on the reserve taught him about life, providing for a family and personal finances. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=09418L-GwGY>

3. Entrepreneurship and financial independence | Mark Chapter 3 | Money Break - Social entrepreneur Mark

Marsolais-Nahwegahbow remembers tough financial times, and explains how he chose entrepreneurship to help his community and reach financial independence. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=i402ELERuWQ>

4. Paying it forward | Mark Chapter 4 | Money Break - First Nations entrepreneur Mark Marsolais-Nahwegahbow shares what financial well-being means to him and talks about the importance of paying it forward.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HOQYVl6qVrE>