

pay atTention Self-Assessment: 4-point Scale

	Not quite	Somewhat	Well done	Exceptional
A. Financial/Curricular Content	Is the content accurate, relevant, and connected to FL10 curriculum?
Information related to personal finances is accurate
Content is related to a course outcome and shows a connection between finances and well-being
Vocabulary choices are clear and accurate
Content is relevant to people in Saskatchewan
Justification:
B. Learning Potential	Is there potential for learning new financial knowledge and/or skills?
Audience will clearly understand the importance of the project's theme
Audience will be motivated to change habits based on at least one clear actionable step
Justification:

C. Exceptional Product	Is the product innovative and creative?
High-quality product reflects exceptional creativity, skill, and editing
Message is presented clearly and concisely (ie. 30-sec. ad, poster, brief brochure, etc.)
Innovative, engaging, and effective use of media to deliver the message
Justification:

Other Comments?